

Social developments in the European Union 2010

Twelfth annual report

—

Edited by
Christophe Degryse and David Natali

European Trade Union Institute (ETUI)
Observatoire social européen (OSE)

Acknowledgements

Social developments in the European Union is the product of a collective effort. In addition to the authors of the various contributions (see list at end of volume), we are particularly grateful to the researchers of the European Trade Union Institute (ETUI) for their careful scrutiny of the text and judicious comments. We naturally take full responsibility for the views expressed in this volume.

We should also like to thank Maria Jepsen and Philippe Pochet of the European Trade Union Institute (ETUI).

On the organisational side, we are greatly indebted to Valérie Cotulelli for formatting the text and Françoise Verri for co-ordinating the translation.

Translation from the French and English-language editing by Janet Altman and her team.

Brussels, 2011

© Publisher: ETUI aisbl, Brussels

All rights reserved

Print: ETUI Printshop, Brussels

D/2011/10.574/12

ISBN: 978-2-87452-213-0

Price: 20 €

Report commissioned from the Observatoire social européen, asbl by the European Trade Union Institute and the European Trade Union Confederation.

The ETUI is financially supported by the European Union.

The European Union is not responsible for any use made of the information contained in this publication.

Table of contents

Preface	9
Christophe Degryse and David Natali
Foreword:
A more socially just and sustainable recovery for the European Union	11
George Irvin
The crisis and the European social model	23
1. How we got here.....	24
2. Why Eurozone countries cannot all be like Germany.....	27
3. Who pays for the crisis?.....	30
5. The distributional impact of budget cutting.....	38
6. Accelerating privatisation.....	41
7. Neoliberal ideology.....	46
8. Growing out of the crisis.....	48
Jacques Le Cacheux
A different approach to reforming EU economic governance	53
1. Divergences within the eurozone.....	55
2. The risks of budgetary consolidation.....	57
3. Non-cooperative national strategies.....	60
4. Restoring competitiveness while maintaining cohesion.....	64
In conclusion: a new type of growth.....	66
Béla Galgóczi
Climate change and sustainable development after the crisis	69
Introduction.....	69
1. Policy background of climate change mitigation.....	70
2. European performance since 1990 – crises have had a greater effect than has climate policy.....	73
3. Employment effects.....	78
Conclusions.....	85

Jacky Fayolle
New Skills for New Jobs an area for trade union involvement	91
1. Jobs and skills: a European strategy still at an embryonic stage.....	92
2. Sector councils on Employment and Skills.....	100
3. Learning outcomes, evolution or revolution?	104
4. Vocational training, life-long learning: work in progress.....	110
Conclusions.....	116
Marina Angelaki and David Natali
Pension policy in Europe since the crisis: EU developments and national reforms	121
1. Key messages from EU institutions on pension reform	122
2. National pension reforms as a response to the crisis?	128
Conclusions.....	135
Bart Vanhercke
Is the 'Social dimension of Europe 2020' an oxymoron?	141
Introduction.....	141
1. Prelude: from Lisbon to Europe 2020	142
2. A new strategy for Europe until 2020: objectives and governance.....	147
3. Lisbon and Europe 2020 compared: progress for Social Europe?	153
4. Be careful what you wish for: risk(s) in relation to Europe 2020	157
5. Where do we go from here? Safeguarding Europe 2020's social dimension	160
Conclusions and outlook.....	165
Dalila Ghailani
European social policy: some thoughts on the case law	175
Introduction.....	175
1. Equality and non-discrimination	176
2. Working conditions.....	188
3. Rights and obligations of workers and employers.....	196
Conclusions.....	202
David Natali and Christophe Degryse
Future prospects	205

Cécile Barbier

Chronology 2010

Key events in European social policy213

List of abbreviations.....241

List of contributors245